

Newlyweds Home Here

Establishing a new home in Tacoma are Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Huber who were recently married in the Onecho Mennonite Church in Colfax. The bride, the former Miss Elinor Jean

MRS. JAMES DOUGLAS HUBER
(Elinor Jean Aeschliman)

Aeschliman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aeschliman of Colfax. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Huber of Tacoma.

The young couple met while attending Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore. The bridegroom, who is employed by Boeing, also attended Stadium and Wilson high schools in Tacoma.

The bride was escorted by her father to an altar lighted by rose candles and banked with rose pin and white gladioli.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white silk organza over net and taffeta. Lace and sequin applique traced a dainty sweetheart neckline and accented the front of the fitted bodice. A full gathered skirt, also appliqued with matching lace drifted into a chapel-length train. Of sentimental interest was her finger-tip veil of tulle caught to a simple pearl crown which had been worn by her sister-in-law, Mrs. John E. Aeschliman. A bouquet of rosebuds and lily of the valley centered with a white orchid completed her bridal attire.

Matron of Honor

Matron of honor was Mrs. James C. Goodrich who was gowned in rose pink. The bridesmaids, attired in identical frocks, were Misses Janis Ensley, Janet Pedersen, and Mrs. William Rubin. Miss Sandra Goodrich was flower girl.

Richard Huber was best man; ushers were Gail Henning, Larry Smith and John E. Aeschliman. Charles Isaak was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Misses Karen Scholz and Christie Stout.

Preceding the bride's entry into the church, the bridegroom, accompanied by Miss Caroline Hilty, sang, "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony, some 200 guests were received in the church parlors.

effect comes from electronic impulses that gently contract the muscles some forty times a minute — in whatever area you desire and with no conscious effort on your part.

As a result, you relax while your muscles tighten up and gird up flesh. What you cannot expect of any machine or workout is a weight loss. Pounds can be reduced only by dieting.

In losing large amounts of weight, many women develop a flaccid condition. This could be prevented, however, were a reducer's muscles actively exercised during the dieting period. For an ideal figure, the rule of less eating and more exercising can never be side-stepped.

FAST COOKING FOR HOT DAYS

Use your gas broiler for quick meals on hot days. Canned vegetables can be drained and placed in the broiler pan while meats cook on the broiler rack. Cook sliced tomatoes and fruit garnishes alongside the meat and directly under the broiler flame. Smoke and volatile fats are consumed as they rise into the gas flame, preventing excess heat and grease spatter.
